

Transforming the world's largest university press to open

OUP is the world's largest university press publisher of open research

Growth of OUP OA programme

*OUP publishes ~500 journals in total

OUP's OA transformation priorities

-  Further our mission
-  Fulfil the needs of researchers, readers, and customers
-  Ensure that access to scholarly research materials is as simple as possible
-  Protect the long-term sustainability of research publishing for our customers and society publishing partners
-  Be flexible and transparent in our approach

Growth of transformative agreements

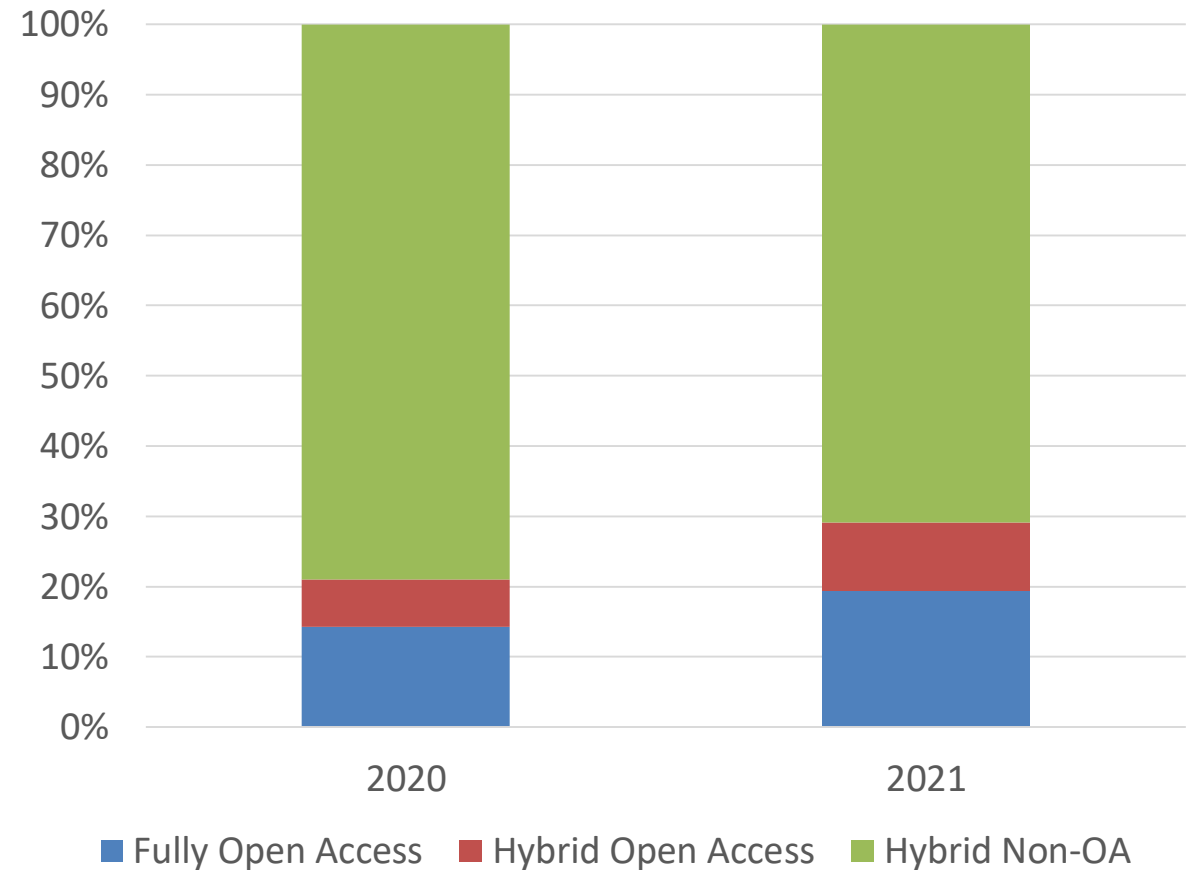

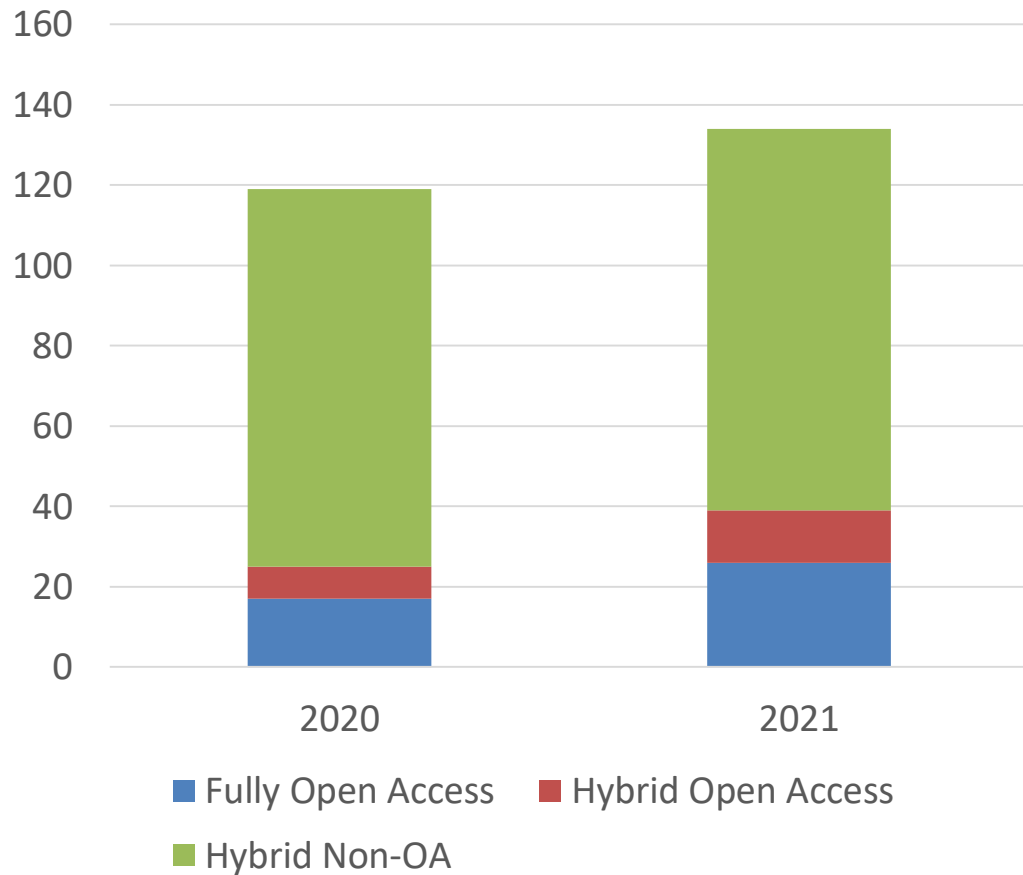

- We have 29 transformative agreements currently in place
- 23 in Europe
- 3 in Asia
- 2 in North America
- 1 in Australasia

- We are actively negotiating future transformative agreements in Europe, North America, Asia, and South America
- We expect significant growth of transformative agreements over the coming years
- The fastest increase in transformative agreements is still likely to be in Europe, with slower but steady uptake elsewhere
