eCases from Emerald

Engage students by exploring real world challenges

Teaching cases offer students the opportunity to explore real world challenges in the classroom environment, allowing them to test their assumptions and decision-making skills before taking their knowledge into the workplace.

Discover our eCase collections

Choose from our full eCase Collection or our separate Emerging Markets Case Studies (EMCS) and The CASE Journal collections (TCJ).

The eCase Collection

A complete collection of eCases in one resource.

Our full eCase Collection is made up of over 2,500 cases from EMCS, TCJ and over 1,000 licensed cases from leading business schools. It also includes The Case for Women, a collection dedicated to the female protagonist developed in partnership with The Case for Women and Forté.

Emerging Markets Case Studies (EMCS)

A growing collection of over 1,100 eCase studies and accompanying teaching notes with a unique focus on developing economies.

EMCS specialises in case research from and about emerging markets and developing economies, regions which are traditionally underrepresented in teaching case collections, but offer unique and important insights globally.

The CASE Journal (TCJ)

Over 300 double-blind, peer-reviewed eCases endorsed by The CASE Association, which advocates case writing and teaching and provides a forum for both novice and experienced writers.

Presents students with a modern interpretation of discussion-based teaching and equips the next generation of business professionals with the acumen to solve strategic problems in enterprise.
