

Dear Sirs and Madams,

It is our pleasure to announce that the "IV International Student Complementary Piano Competition" will be held in the city of Niš, Serbia from 20.05. to 22.05.2016.

We are pleased to inform you that the previous competitions have been successfully organized alongside with nice events both for the participants-performers and for the audience. The international jury has given a great number of awards in all categories, which proves that the contestants have been well prepared and had excellent performances. Most of the contestants stated their wishes to come and participate at the next contests, which we truly hope will happen.

This year, we would be glad to welcome many of Your students and professors to take part in our IV International Student Complementary Piano Competition. Based on last year's experience we are convinced that this opportunity to meet each other, to exchange our practices, and to cooperate in various fields, will be mutually useful both for You as participants and for us as organizers of the event.

We are looking forward to meeting You in our hospitable city.

Niš, 12.02.2016.

Dean of the Faculty

Prof. dr Suzana Kostić
