

Participation of Ionian University in the event organized by the Hellenic Foundation for Research and Innovation (H.F.R.I.) entitled "200 Years from the Greek Revolution: Conversing with History today".

The Department of Informatics of the Ionian University has the pleasure and honor to participate in the event organized by the Hellenic Foundation for Research and Innovation (HFRI) entitled "200 Years from the Greek Revolution: Conversing with History today" within the framework of the Action "Science and Society - 200 Years from the Greek Revolution".

During the event the "Experiential Educational Game for the Evaluation of the Social Identity of the Greek Revolution - BYRON" will be presented. The aforementioned project is developed by the Humanistic Informatics Laboratory of the Department of Informatics, Ionian University under the direction of Assoc. Prof. Phivos Mylonas, in collaboration with members of the Department of History. More information is available on the project's website: <https://hilab.di.ionio.gr/byron/>

The event will take place on Thursday, February 6, 2020 at the National History Museum, in the Ceremonial Hall (Old Parliament House, Kolokotroni Square, Stadium 13, Athens).

The event will be honored by the presence of H.E., the President of the Greek Republic, Mr. Prokopios Pavlopoulos.

H.F.R.I.
Hellenic Foundation for Research & Innovation