

METAFORIKOS

The courier of information from the archives
to the book

A lecture by RICHARD PINE

MONDAY 16 DECEMBER 2019, 16.00 p.m.

Lecture Theatre 2.42 (2nd floor)

Department of Archives, Library Science and Museology
Postgraduate Studies “Management of Cultural Information” Postgraduate Course “Information Seeking, Creativity and Cultural Industry” – Assistant Prof. P. Kostagiolas & Ch. Lavranos, PhD

RICHARD PINE is Director of the Durrell Library of Corfu and author of many books, including
Lawrence Durrell: the Mindscape and Greece Through Irish Eyes.

He will discuss three of his books:

- Lawrence Durrell: the Mindscape*
- To Talent Alone: the Royal Irish Academy of Music 1848-1998*
- Charles: the Life and World of Charles Acton 1914-1999*

and will describe in detail the use of archive material in public and private ownership to illustrate how a work of literary criticism, an institutional history and a biography are created from these sources.